In Loving Memory of

Dorothy Lou Knott

stands in the grave. Our birth is nothing but our death begun.*

The Unbreakable Promise

You promised you would never go....

I got a call one morning that you were gone....

We said it wasn't true....

You would not break the unbreakable promise.....

minutes into hours

We were all at the house....

and the call was true

You were gone....

Who will tell the kids?

Hours Into Days

He told the kids....

We made a cd to play when we laid you to rest...

The kids looked their best as they passed you and said good bye!

We all cried till we couldn't cry anymore...

Days Into Weeks

Back to work back to school....

A whole new life learning to function without you...

finally your gravestone to tell us your really gone!

Weeks Into Months

We all had a birthday....

The holidays came and went....

The kids still ask about you...

What is the right thing to say?

No one knows!

Months Into A Year

You promised you would never go....

Today its been a year since you broke the unbreakable promise!

*This memorial website was created to remember Dorothy Lou "Sissy" Knott,
Daughter of Donn and Barbara Matthews
she was born in Tiffin, Ohio on January 10, 1979
and passed away on
February 8, 2007.
You will live forever in our memories and hearts.
LOVE U SISSY!*

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is a smaller, tighter bud, while the one on the right is a larger, more open flower with many layers of petals. Both roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade of the background color, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

i'm free

August 8, 2007

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that place at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss; Ah yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seems all to brief; Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free

FILL NOT YOUR HEARTS WITH PAIN AND SORROW,BUT REMEMBER ME IN EVERY TOMORROW.REMEMBER THE JOY, THE LAUGHTER, THE SMILES,I'VE ONLY GONE TO REST A LITTLE WHILE. BECAUSE, I WILL REMEMBER YOU ALL AND LOOK ON WITH A SMILE. UNDERSTAND, IN YOUR HEARTS, I'VE ONLY GONE TO REST A LITTLE WHILE. AS LONG AS I HAVE THE LOVE OF EACH OF YOU, I CAN LIVE MY LIFE IN THE HEARTS OF ALL OF YOU. LITTLE LOU PLEASE JUST KEEP SMILING! MISSING YOUR SMILE! LOVE AUNT CHAR!

The Broken Chain

July 16, 2007

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and, though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but, as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

A DAUGHTERS LOVE

May 2, 2007

This is for Barb and Butch.You 2 were the best parents to your baby anyone can be and Dorothy proved that by passing the care on to her kids.They were her life.God knows I know what that girl put you through,but thats Dorothy,gotta love her.I've lost,but she is your baby,no words can give condolence.You 2 were always there for me to and I want to say thank you for that,even though I'm sure the thought of beating us crossed your minds sometimes,OK a lot.Thank you

The roses are rendered in a slightly darker, more defined tone than the background, giving them a subtle presence.

It's been a while baby girl. Well Christmas is here again and it really sucks with out you here. Love you forever and ever.

Mommy

It has been a while sence I wrote to you. Kate, Bub, Allison and Christian were here for the weekend. We all went to the store and got groceries. Then we came home and looked up reciepes and cooked just like we used to do when you were here. You would be so proud of the kids, they are just like you, they love to cook. Honey I think about you every second of every minute of every day. You are all ways in my thoughts and prayers and I will never stop loving my baby girl. Wanted to tell you also that Shirley and Freebird are getting married on May14, 2010. I only wish you were here to help us plan the wedding. I know that you are looking down and

Hi Baby Girl. Was just sitting here thinking about you and the fact that Christmas is almost here. This will be our second Christmas without you here and it still hurts so much. I know that you would be making a big deal of it because it was your favorite Day. This year is a little harder for me because I just had 3 heart attacks in three days. I had one stent put in and have to go back on Jan. 5, 2009 to have another stent put in. I know that if you were here you would be taking care of me. Your Dad, Harold and Shirley are doing a great job but I still wish you were here with me. I miss you and know that you are watching over me. I LOVE YOU NOW AND FOREVER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! MOM

Sissy

I wrote this for you on feb.8 2008 never knew i was a poet till this...

The unbreakable promise

you promised you would never go....

I got a call one morning that you were gone....

We said it wasn't true....
you would not break the unbreakable promise.....
minutes into hours
We were all at the house....
and the call was true
you were gone....
Who will tell the kids?
hours into days
he told the kids....

we made a cd to play when we laid you to rest...
the kids looked their best as they passed you and said good bye!
we all cried till we couldn't cry anymore...

days into weeks

Back to work back to school....
a whole new life learning to function without you...
finally your gravestone to tell us you're really gone!

weeks into months

We all had a birthday....
the holidays came and went....
the kids still ask about you...
what is the right thing to say?
no one knows!

months into a year

you promised you would never go....
today it's been a year since you broke the unbreakable promise!

hi little me-

I heard this on a tv show tonight and thought of you....I miss you sissy and luv u very much.

Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower
We will grieve not, but rather find Strength in what remains behind.

MOMMY

Was sitting here thinking about you and listening to the song ""Broken"" by Lindsey Haun and remembering that it was the last movie that you and I watched together. I wish sometimes that I could turn back the hands of time and have you back. It has been 18 long months today sence you left all of us. We all miss you so much. I still cry alot because I miss you so much. I know that when you died a part of me died too. My heart💔 is still broken and I miss you and the way we would run around together on Thursday's with the kids with us. We always had so much fun when we were all together. I will never stop missing you or loving you. You are and will always be my Pal. MOMMY

I was sitting here thinking about how much I missed U on my B-Day. I remember how much U loved getting cakes on all our B-DAY's. Those along with every holiday were special to U and U always tried to make a big deal out of each and every special day. Even day's that weren't a special day U made them that way by fixing special meals or letting the kids make something special to eat like the last day U spent with them and me. We made food for me to take to the dinner I was taking Little John to that night. Then there was the chocolate covered bananas the kids helped make. I will never forget that day because U made it special. At least now I can think about those times and smile and remember how much they ment to U and how much fun they were for all of us. Honey I love ❤️ and miss U more and more each and every day that passes. My ❤️ will never heal but the 😊 happy times we shared will make it easier. I 🙏 everyday and miss u my special 😊 Angel. Keep watching over us all. This is sent to U with a 💋 and the dreams of being with U when God decides to take me to be with U.

Daddy

It has been 14 months ago today that we layed you to rest. I still miss you as much today as i did then. The pain is still here but it is getting a little better. Now i think about all the good times we had together and that helps ease the pain a little bit. The other day i remembered the time you helped me put up the dog run and how you dug all the post holes. That was really cool. Sometimes i think i can still hear you saying I love you Daddy. Honey i really miss you alot and will never forget you.

Mommy

My heart is breaking💔 today more than any other because it was 1 year ago today we all gathered around your grave to send you to Heaven to be the Angel you always were here on Earth. Honey I will never forget how I felt when we had to leave you there. It hurt so much knowing that it was really true and I would never see your smile or hear you say Mommy I love you ever again. I remember all the great times we all shared with you, Kenny, and The kids. I will never let them forget you. You were the light of our lives. Now you are up ther with your wings and a golden Halo watching over us. Continue to watch and we will try to be strong and help Kenny with the Kids. I love and miss you more and more every day.

Love you now , forever, and always. Never forgotten and always in our hearts💔💔 and on our minds.

Daddy

One year ago today I was sitting in a truck stop drinking coffee and I got that one phone call no parent ever wants to get. It was Burt telling me that there was an accident and you was gone. At first I did not believe him so I called home and your mother answered the phone crying and I then knew it was true. I will never forget that day my whole life came crashing down around me. I don't remember to much about that day except when I got home your mother met me at the door crying I wrapped my arms around her and started crying to. We just held each other for a while. The days that followed are just a blur all I remember is the pain and emptiness I felt inside me. And now one year later it's all coming back. I miss you so much Baby Girl. But in my heart I know you are in a better place now and you are watching over all of us down here. I know that some day we will be together again so until that day comes please keep watching over all of us and know this I LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU VERY MUCH.

LOVE YA BABY GIRL

Mommy

♥ Honey my heart is still breaking. One year ago today was the last time I got to tell you how much I love you. I was headed out the door to a meeting and you said Mom wait a minute. I turned around and said what do you need. You looked at me and said Mom I really, really, really love you. I said I know and I love you too. You said I really mean it Mom I love you. Little did I know that would be the last time we would tell each other we loved you. I will never forget that day as long as I live. We spend the whole day together with the kids shopping and then cooking. We had a lot of fun. You wanted me to go to Bingo and I told you I couldn't because I promised Little John I would take him to the meeting in Findlay. I have wished a million times I could turn back the hands of time that I stayed home and went with you. Maybe you would be here with us now.

The kids are getting so big and they miss you so much. When they come over on the weekends I put Allison on my lap at the computer and she points to your picture and says my mommy. Chris ask me ever once in a while where you are. I tell him you are an Angel in Heaven watching over all of us. Kate, Bub, Hope and Angel miss you and I think they sort of understand that you are in Heaven and are their Guardian Angel watching over them.

I miss you and will always love you Baby Girl. Know that you are in my heart and my thoughts every minute of every day. I'll never forget your beaurifil smile.

♥ LOVE YOU FOREVER AND ALWAYS!!!!

MOMMY

♥ Love you Honey. Today is your Birthday and you would have been 29. I have been thinking about the day you were born and how purfect you were. You were so tiny and pretty. Harold and Shirl thought you were so little and wanted you home right then. We couldn't get them to understand that you had to stay in the hospital for a couple days. You were Daddy's little girl from the moment you were born and my little Angel. I look up toward Heaven and wonder if you are looking down at me at the same time. Your name means you are a gift from God and that was and still is true. I will always remember the day you were born and always love you and miss you.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY ANGEL GIRL!!!

big brother

I remember alot of birthdays with you sissy. Like the time you tore up my bathroom. I miss you sissy.

U KNOW ME

Mommy

Merry Christmas Honey. We all missed you being here and cooking Christmas dinner. It just wasn't the same without you. The kids all came over and spent the night last night. I just keep thinking about last year and how much fun we had shopping for the kids for Christmas and watching them open everything. I know you were watching from above. I miss snd love you so much. I just wonder if the hurt will ever go away!!!!

Mommy

Today is J.J.'s B-day and we can't be with him either. We know that you are watching over him and Gracie for us. I miss you 3 so very much and wish you were all back home with us.

You were always the one who made a big deal out of birthday's for the kids and they will never forget them. Bub's birthday is in two days and he wants a semi truck. They aren't having a party until Christmas Eve and then we are going to celebrate his and Angel's too. I wish you were going to be here because it isn't going to be the same without you and the big party you always had for them. I love you and miss you more as each day goes by. They say that it gets easier as time passes. I'm here to tell everyone they are WRONG!!!! It hurts more now than it did the day you left us. Keep watching over all of us from above and I will see you again when God is ready for me to come home with you. LOVE YOU YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER!!!!!!!

Lori

There isn't a day that goes by, that I don't think of you in some way. Today's memory arrived when I happened by the trailer you guys used to live in at Highland. Yesterday's memory was Jolly's, I was eating a hotdog and imagined you eating chicken sandwiches. You will be in my mind and heart forever. Even though we all miss you here on earth, it gives me great relief and happiness knowing you are watching out for us as one of God's angels. Love you

big brother

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now I'm Free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Daddy

Hey Baby girl today my birthday and it sucks without you here, and it also the day we buried you 10 months ago. that make it really hard for me. But I know you watching over me today.

Daddy

It's been 10 months today since you left us. I still think of you every day. Sissy and Big Brother had cake for my 17 Years sober and got me a real nice coin. The pain of losing you is still there but getting a little better.

Daddy

well baby girl here it is another year clean and sober. wish you was here to help me celebrate it. last night was rough did not sleep very good because I knew I would not get my 12:01am call from you I am really going to miss that. but don't worry your sissy made the call at 12:05am and big brother did to at 12:28am. so they are filling in for you now. and I am sure they got something planned for today.

Mommy

I am taking a break from homework and wanted to share memories of Thanksgiving with you. It wasn't the same without you helping me cook for everyone. Shirl wanted to do the pie's and managed to burn the Apple pie. But that is okay. Kenny brought Allison over and she stayed overnight. The rest of the kids were in New London at Matt's. I sure missed everyone not being here. First it was J.J. and Gracie and now you. My heart can't take losing anyone else. It is broke into so many pieces now that I don't think it will ever mend.

We had the S.O.S. Thanksgiving at Shirley and Freebird's and it was great. Shirl fixed Lazanya and it was good. I wished I could trade places with you and you could be here with the kids. Christmas is going to be here and it is our first without you. I cry everyday just thinking about it. I know that I will get through it for the kids. I have to be here for them now. I sure miss them and you and Kenny living here. It is pretty lonsome without all of you.

I will write more next time, need to get back to homework. Love and miss you more than ever.

Mommy

Her it is almost turkey day and I am tinkering about last year when you, Skirl and I went shopping for dinner. We had so much fun that day. We had even more fun fixing everything and then eating it. My heart is still breaking without you here to help with dinner. You were a great cook and loved to cook big meals for everyone. I am hoping that the kids can come over for at least part of the day. Honey you will be missed so much this turkey day. Smile down on us as we remember you. Love you always.

Daddy

Baby girl it's been nine months now since you left us. I still remember that day I got the phone call telling me you went home to be with the Lord. I still cry on this day when I remember that call. It brings back all the pain. But then I start remembering all the fun we had together and that helps ease the pain in my heart. Just like when I was in so much pain at the retreat in May and you came to me in a vision reaching your hand out to me and you said daddy I am ok now and you will be to some day. The holidays are coming up soon and it won't be easy getting thru them with out you. But I am sure I will get thru them just like I did the Halloween dance. I cried there to but then I started remembering all the times when you was there and I knew you was there in spirit and that helped. So please be with us in spirit and help us remember all the good times we had together. With all my love. Daddy

MOMMY

Honey I was just sitting here playing a game on pogo and remembering how we would play and see who could get the highest score. Your Dad is still playing ZUMA and trying to beat your high score. I know I'll never beat it. I haven't been to Bingo since you left us. It just wouldn't be the same. Maybe some day I will get Heather, Sissy, Kathy and Aunt Julie and all go to BINGO AND PLAY ONE FOR YOU. I haven't watched Days either. There are just some things that I don't want to do anymore without you.

It's almost Thanksgiving and I remember last year at this time You, Me and Sissy went to Wal-Mart and got everything for Thanksgiving Dinner. Sissy took a picture of you and me with my head on your shoulder. I wish I could put my head on your and tell you how much I love you.

I am having a really hard time here lately with the holliday's coming knowing that you, J.J. and Gracie aren't going to be here with us. I miss you all so much. Everyone say's it will get easier as time goes on. I don't believe that. It is getting harder for me. It hurts so much. It seems like everything reminds me of you, J.J. and Gracie. When I hear the song MY WISH it reminds me of when it came out and we were in the car and you said that was your song for J.J. and Gracie. Well now it is my song for them and I remember that day in the car with you and the kids. I remember how much you loved to cook. It makes me happy because we sure had a lot of fun in the kitchen. Like the last day I spent with you and the kids all here. We went to the store and got all the stuff to make chocolate covered bananas and other stuff with the kids. I don't think they will ever forget either. We had a lot of fun. I'll never forget you telling me you love me that day when I was leaving to go to a meeting. You don't know how much I wished I would have stayed home with you. I would give anything to have that day back!!!!

I love you and will never forget the fun we had together. We were more than mother and daughter. We were best friends, buddies and pals. Watch over all of us from up there in Heaven.

Mommy

♥ Hi there my little 😊 I 6 days it will be nine months since you left us. The kids went Trick or treating the other night with Kenny and Shannon. I didn't go. I wasn't feeling good and just kept thinking about last year when we went with the kids. You and I took turns holding Allison along with Shirl helping. The three of us had a lot of fun with the kids that night and I will never forget it. Sometimes it is so hard to make it through a day without you here. I miss you so much. I took pumkins out to you and Allen for Halloween. They were so cute. I sit here sometimes and wonder if you have met everyone up there and wonder if you are all talking about old times and laughing about the good times. Everyone here misses all of you and know that you are all in our hearts and minds all the time. I will write again soon. LOVE YOU ALWAYS AND FOREVER!!!!!!

Mommy

Hi there honey. It has been almost 8 months and I am missing you more than ever. Gracie's B-Day is almost here and I am missing her and J.J. as much as I miss you. I have been trying to go throught everything here at home and it just hurts so bad. I just want everything to stay the way it was. I start going throught and I have to stop because I don/t want the memories you fade of what everything was like when you left us. Maybe someday I will be able to get through everything and put things away that I want the kids to have. But today is not the day. I love you and miss you J.J. and Gracie more than anything. Keep watching over us from above.

Mommy

Hi there Honey,

Just was sitting here thinking about all the fun we use to have making things for the holidays. The kids were here all weekend and we made ghosts. I had a lot of fun with them.

I am looking up stuff for them to make for Christmas. I wish you could be here to see them when we get them done. I made Alli a ghost and she had fun playing with it. It was so cute watching her swing it around.

I miss you more and more every day. The emptiness in my heart sure isn't getting any smaller. I love and miss you more than ever. And I don't think I will ever get over losing you. The only comfort that I have is that you are in Heaven and are not suffering from the injuries from the accident. Watch over all of us and know that we all love and miss you very much.

Mommy

It has been 7 months and you are missed more than ever. I wish I could turn back time and have you back with us. We had Hope, Kate and Allison today. Took them to Sissy's for Freebirds party and then took them to the S O S meeting in Fostoria. They had a lot of fun. They are in bed for the night and I am headed there.

Love U. Continue to watch over us down here. I bet U have a very pretty set of Wings. You are in our hearts and thoughts everyday and will never be forgotten.
Love U

Daddy

My baby girl it has been 7 months ago today you left us.I was sitting at a truck stop when I got a phone call that that no parent ever wants to get.That is when my whole life fell apart.I still remember the anger I felt at that time and the emptiness I felt inside.Not a day goes by that I don't think of you and wish it never happened.I miss you so much.

MOMMY

Well baby here it is six months and everyday is hard without u. Just about everything I do reminds me of u. I was making a sandwich today and knew what u would say if u were here watching me. U would have looked at me and said how can u eat that because I had mayo on it. Then I started thinking about fixing your dads supper tonight and started laughing because I am fixing him liver and onions tonight. I am also making jewelary now for AA. It is real neat and I know u would be making it to if u were here with me. I love u and miss u more than anyone will ever know. Watch over all of us and be with J.J. and Gracie because we can't. I know u can watch over them and guide them through life.

Love you and miss you baby.

Lori

Oh God... soooo many memories in the past 27 years. All the sleepovers when me, you and shirley would stay up and talk. Or all the trips to Kmart or Burger King with my mom and Reva. Playing detective at the grocery store.... only you know why we did it. Giving catfish a bath was my favorite but probably not your dad's favorite memory. As we grew older the memories turned to sleepovers, the arcade, the boyfriends, and just hanging out trying not to get into trouble. Of course after kids and jobs and husbands, the rarity of Bingo was fun for me and you were the first person I thought of when I could go. Oh and Jolly's will always remind me of you... their chicken sandwiches, chili cheese and ballreichs! I could go on and on with memories of us together... but just remember that I love you and will miss you everyday of my life.

MOMMY

I was just sitting here thinking about when we all went to Florida. Your Dad has a load going to Miami and I am going down with him. I sure wish you were here and we were all going down again. We had alot of fun at Disney World. I still wouldn't trade those memories for anything. I love and miss you so much and still wish everyday that I could ture back time and you would still be here so we could go to BINGO. LOL!! Honey I know that you are at peace and living a life that we down here can only dream about. Until we meet again. I love and miss you with all my heart.

Mommy

Your Dad and brother just left to go to Fremont to unload the big truck. I was just thinking about you always wanting your Dad to take you and he would tell you that you couldn't go because you had 6 sweet babies to take care of and he didn't want to you to get in an accident in the truck and not be there for your babies. I wish now that you would have got one more ride in the truck with your Dad. But that is O.K. because I know that you are riding with him and keeping watch over him now. I miss you and that smile of yours more and more everyday Baby Girl.

Mommy

Hi sissy, just wanted to say we went to Founders Day. Before we left we went to see u and said a prayer. I know u were with us all weekend. But I sure did miss u going with us to get our nails and hair done. It wasn't the same without u there to give us all a kiss and see us off. I miss u more and more every day. If I could ask GOD for a very special favor it would be for us to see each other one more time. I will see u as soon as my time on earth is done. Until then I will keep u in my heart, mind and prayers every day. Love u now and forever!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Sissy

i was sitting in freebirds truck today smoking a cig and bored and i actually thought i should call u and see what u were doing then i picked up my phone and relized u would not answer...then i thought of all our dumbass phone calls...remeber how excited dad was when he got free long distance when i lived in tenn.....we would call just to say hi

LOVE U SISSY

Mommy

I am sitting here thinking about all the fun we use to have planning the kids birthday parties together. You always went all out for those and for christmas. You would make ecah kid a treat bag with toys and candy. You had to count each piece to make sure that each one got the same amount of each thing. You always said that kids would check to see if one got more than the other. I would laught because Kenny and your Dad would tell you it didn't matter. Well I went out and got the stuff to make Hope her birthday cake because this Sunday she will be 7. She sure is getting big. I know you are looking down and watching them grow. They are all great kids and you would be so proud of them. I also got ice cream and her present from us. As with every year we are going to Founders Day in Akron and Hope's B-Day is while we are going to be gone, so we are going to have cake and ice cream on Thursday night before we leave. You don't know how much I will miss you not being here in person, but I know that you will be watching from up above, and blowing out the candles with Hope. I love you and will miss you very much because you will not be here helping me do the cake. I will look up as she blows out her candles and makes her wish and I will blow you a kiss from all of us. Love you Sissy.

Mommy

It has been almost 4 months and my heart is still breaking. There is not a day that goes by that I don't cry. You were my baby girl and I had to say good-bye to you until my time comes to come to you. I will keep you in my heart until then. It seems like it isn't real at times and that you will come home like you were never gone. Then I realize it is real and start to cry again. I don't want to ever stop crying because if I do then I feel like I will be letting you go. I just can't do that yet. I love you Sissy.

big brother

there are so many things i remember about my sissy but the most important thing is she loved her kids and would do anything for them if she could!

my little Dort has been such a blessing to watch grow up into the fine young woman that she turned out to be.

It was a true joy to watch this neice grow up.

Dort always had a beautiful smile on her face no matter what was going on in her life she could light up a room by her smile.

I will miss calling home and her not answering the phone and saying to me "Hey Aunt Bren how is it going" I loved talking to her and seeing her when I came home.

Our trip to the Amish country will always be in my mind. We had such a WONDERFUL time that day just her and her mom and me. I will not ever forget that day.

Sweetie you will be missed but not ever forgotten.

Your in our makers hands now and He will take care of you.

Be sure to say hey to all of the family there in Heaven.

Well what can I say..... we've known each other for 27 years. May not be sisters by blood but definetly in our hearts. We knew the good the bad and the ugly in each other! I think about you and miss you each and every day, but I'm glad to know that you are above us watching over us. Love you forever Dorothy.

Sissy

Sissy- so many people always told us they wished they could be close like us....we did it all good and bad together. I think the thing i remember (and always will) most about u is ur smile and personality....we all know u had a rough life but u never let it get u and u never held a grudge....it is hard to have fun now cause u always had the plan and everyone just went along....u never let me down! love u sissy....

Dawny

I have so many memories I would spend the rest of my life trying to tell them. But ALL of them are great and I couldn't have created a more perfect best friend. You were always there for me no matter what Dawnee. My heart is torn and will never fully repair. I love you. I'll never forget my 30th birthday sitting in front of the mens restroom where we confessed our love and kissed. I'm so glad we had that talk. Oh and by the way, you know the head of cabbage we bought at Wal Mart, you were going to give me a recipe, I still have it.....I MISS YOU SO MUCH

Mommy

I still remember the day you were born. You were so little and perfect. I watched you grow over the years into a very caring, loving, giving person. I was so proud of you. You were the best daughter, wife, and mother that any one would have ever wanted to meet. Just like me your children were your life. We shared the good times and the bad and made it through them together. I know that you are at peace now and in a better place where there is no pain or sorrow. You are in GOD'S hands and are now an ANGEL and that you are watching over all of us. Until we meet again in heaven, know that I will think of you every day and will never stop loving you!

Daddy

She was a very loving mother and a wonderful daughter. Will never forget you honey.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

January 10, 1979

Born in United States Tiffin, Ohio on January 10, 1979.

February 8, 2007

Passed away on February 8, 2007.

July 20, 2007

Dorothy was born at Mercy Hospital in Tiffin, Ohio to Donn and Barbara Matthews. She has two older siblings, a brother Harold Wayne born in 1975 and a sister Shirley Ann born in 1976. She was raised in Tiffin and attended Krout Elementary, Tiffin West Junior High, and Columbian Senior High until 1995.

October 8, 2007

Dorothy Lou was a mother who was raising 6 very beautiful children. She always looked out for her children first and everybody else second. She really loved the holidays. Halloween she always decorated her whole house and always took the children trick or treating. Then came Thanksgiving she loved to cook and was a really good cook. Everything she made tasted very very good. Everybody loved Dorothy Lou's cooking. Then came Christmas now that was always an adventure. Dorothy would go get a live Christmas tree every year. She always bought live trees every Christmas. She never liked those fake trees. And as just like years past she would get a tree way to tall to fit in the house. So it would have to be cut shorter to fit in the living room. She always made sure her children had a very good Christmas. Then lets not forget the childrens birthdays. That was always fun. She would always decorate the house. Made sure there was plenty of toys and food. When it came time for the candy Dorothy would always sit down and divide the candy in little bags. Always making sure that each child had the same amount of candy. She was a very loving mother and would do anything for her children. They was always first in her life. She also loved demolition derbies. One year her and Kenny put a car together for her. She had a blast that day. She was having so much fun that day ,that when the officials tried to stop her she got mad at them. She wanted to keep going.

Our Deepest Sympathy
